The Boston Store, Astoria, Oregon, Quits Business in Astoria Forever in Fourteen Days

The Boston Store having decided to Quit Business in Astoria has turned its stock over to the The West Coast Salvage Company to close out and limited the time to accomplish this result to 14 days.

Beginning Friday Morning, February 28th, at 9 o'clock

This immense stock of staple, dependable merchandise will be thrown on the market and for fourteen days the people of Astoria and vicinity will be treated to the most royal feast of genuine live bargains that has ever happened in Western Oregon. Bargains that carry with them a saving to you of, at least, ONE-HALF on every dollar. Never in the history of Astoria has such a slaughter of good merchandise been attempted by us or any other mercantile house; for no merchant can or will attempt to meet the prices of a Genuine Closing Out Sale and this store will positively close its doors forever in Astoria, on Saturday night, March 14, 1908.
